Remission

Where three or more siblings attend the School, the two eldest children will be charged full fees, and younger siblings may be eligible for a discount of up to 50% of the tuition fee. Where a pupil already receives a fee reduction, total discounts for that pupil will not exceed 50%. Generally, no discounts are applied to boarding fees or extras.

Methods of Payment

There are several methods of payment that exist for parents when it comes to settling their account for school fees. These options provide the flexibility to pay in full at the beginning of the school year, termly or by two direct debit options.

Notice

A full term's notice of withdrawal from the school must be given in writing to the Principal otherwise a full term's fee will be charged in lieu of notice.

LOMOND SCHOOL SCOTLAND

Payment in full at the beginning of the Academic Year

Payment is due in full on or before the first day of the school year. Payment can be made by cheque, or bank transfer.

Payment in full termly

Payment is due in full, on or before the first day of the term. Payment can be made cheque, a bank transfer (full bank details below).

Payment by Direct Debit

Payment of fees by instalment can be arranged from the end of May. Payments may be made in 12 instalments starting 30 June 2026 and ending 31 May 2027 or in 10 instalments starting 13 August 2026 and ending 13 May 2027. A direct debit mandate must be completed and sent to the school for processing and all Payers will receive a schedule of dates and amounts due. A direct debit mandate should be requested by parents wishing to use this option.

Payment by Overseas Parents may be made by the following methods

Direct BACS transfer of the Sterling amount payable to the School's Bank Account (details below)

Direct Debit payment is available to UK citizens with a UK bank account, subject to approval by Lomond School.

Payment can be made in full for the year or duration of study, on or before the first day of school year or in 3 termly instalments, on or before the first day of the term.

Parents should consult with their bank as to the most cost-effective way to transfer payment to the school. It should be noted that bank charges any transfers must be covered by the payer.
