

Lomond School
Helensburgh

A great place to live and learn

Attending Lomond School as a boarder, whether short or long term, is a transformational experience. As a British boarding school, based in a safe and stunning location in the west of Scotland, Lomond School offers pupils from overseas the opportunity to immerse themselves in British culture, improve their English language skills and make friends for life in a supportive and stimulating environment with academic success at its heart.

Who are we?

As a day school with boarding, as opposed to a boarding school in the traditional sense, we are unlike many other institutions both in our offering and our location. Whether you are looking for a long-term boarding option to see your child right through senior school, a focused experience around sixth form and pre-university entrance or simply an immersion in another lifestyle and culture, we have the flexibility to support you and your child in achieving their goals, whatever they may be.

As a non-selective school, we are very proud of the academic success of our young people who we support and inspire to excel wherever their strengths lie. We empower them to be successful and confident, and respectful of the world around them, ready to make a difference in our global society.

At Lomond School, we follow the Scottish Qualifications Authority (SQA) curriculum which is not dissimilar to the International Baccalaureate in that it offers pupils a wide range of choices throughout their academic career, providing them with more time to make informed decisions about their future. This curriculum offers an equivalent standard to A-levels or the IB and is well recognised and accepted by universities both throughout the UK and abroad.

Our location

Scotland is a safe and friendly destination which offers stunning landscapes, a rich heritage and modern, vibrant cities. Lomond School is well situated to make the most of this being located in the coastal town of Helensburgh on the west coast of Scotland. We are surrounded by beautiful countryside and are only a short distance away from the cities of Glasgow and Scotland's capital, Edinburgh. The town of Helensburgh is home to a cinema, swimming pool, golf course, tennis club, sailing marina, restaurants and much more. As a predominantly day school, our Boarders are able to experience a realistic way of life, frequently visiting friends at their homes or meeting up in Helensburgh or Glasgow at weekends.

Boarding at Lomond

Living at Lomond School as a boarder is an enriching experience and we believe in making each young person's stay the best it can be. Our boarding house, Burnbrae is separate to the main school campus, offering a clear break between 'home' and school. Burnbrae is a modern, purpose-built facility, accommodating both boys and girls which allows for siblings to live together and creates a family feel. You can expect a warm welcome from our live-in house-parents, matrons and fellow boarders who will all support young people and their parents through their boarding experience.

As a boarder, the weekends will be packed full of fun and new adventures; taking part in Saturday morning sports matches, playing a key role in traditional school events and enjoying cultural trips and outdoor activities throughout the term.

What our Boarders Say

"I got to choose my subjects and love the learning style here. My teachers are so supportive." - Clara, Germany.

"We have all sorts of activities in the boarding house, and the house parents keep us busy. We normally go on trips, and we play football outside on the AstroTurf and basketball in the sports hall. It's just exciting and fun." - Safwan, Dubai.

"The teachers are constantly pushing you to do your best. They wouldn't settle for anything less." - Orla, UK.

"In the boarding house we have a lot of opportunities to go on trips, and we go sight-seeing. As an international student, it's a great way to experience Scotland." - Djordje, Serbia.

"Everyone was nice to me and made me feel welcome. They made it feel like a second home." - Holly, Thailand.
